Baby Bottles for Life Fundraiser for the Legacy of Life Foundation – this weekend please consider taking a bottle to fill with your spare change and help change a life! Our Lady of Calvary will support the Legacy of Life Foundation, which funds two crisis pregnancy centers in Bristol and Philadelphia, PA that serve over 500 families who cannot provide for simple baby supplies for their children. Please bring your filled bottle back on May 6/7 and place it in the bassinets in the vestibule. Your generosity is appreciated! Many of the women who come through our doors believe they have no choice but abortion. They may feel scared, alone, and totally overwhelmed, not sure what to do, and may have no one to talk to. The centers provide free services such as pregnancy testing, counseling, ultrasounds, and advocacy, as well as material and financial support for women so that they can receive the truth about their choice and be freed from free. Any checks should be made to Legacy of Life Foundation with a memo “Bottle Drive Our Lady of Calvary”. For more information or to volunteer call 215-788-4051.

This Week with the Saints

Monday, May 1 – St. Joseph the Worker – In many parts of the world, May 1 is celebrated as Labor Day. On this day, the Church celebrates St. Joseph as a model for all workers, noting that his work as a carpenter supported the holy Family. This observance speaks to the dignity of human work as participation in God’s work of creation.

Wednesday, May 3 – SS. Philip and James, Apostles, Feast – As first Philip followed John the Baptist, but later he came to Jesus. James was the son of Alphaeus, not Zebedee. Both were counted among the Twelve Apostles who traveled with Jesus throughout his ministry.

BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY

“Blessed are they who mourn, for they shall be comforted”. Matthew 5:4

We grieve because we have loved, and there is no set schedule for grieving the loss of a loved one—it can take months or even years. One never gets over the loss and the grief, but one can learn to overcome the loss and grief. We need others to help us during those periods when there does not seem to be an answer to the depression, anger, loneliness, and the deep hurt within us. Getting together with others who have been in the same situation allows us to share our thoughts, feelings, memories, and even tears.

If you are grieving the loss of a parent, spouse, child, grandchild, sibling, or a friend, join us and perhaps together we can work through the emotions you are experiencing. Since September, 2004, the Bereavement Ministry of Our Lady of Calvary, a peer group who have also suffered the loss of a loved one, have given of their time and talent to help others cope with their loss. From April 19 until May 31, the Bereavement Ministry will hold the following helpful sessions for the OLC parish community and for those of neighboring parishes who are grieving.

Bereavement Ministry sessions will be held in the rectory conference room (enter by way of the steps on the church side of the rectory) from 7:00PM to 8:30PM on the following Wednesday evenings:

- May 3 “Crazy is Normal”
- May 10 Feelings of Denial, Bargaining & Guilt
- May 17 Surviving Stress & Loneliness
- May 24 Spiritual Elements of Grief and Healing
- May 31 The Value of Memories & Personal Bereavement Reflections

SPIRITUAL REFLECTIONS

On The Way

Wouldn’t you love to take a walk with Jesus? In our culture, walking has become a great pastime, providing a wonderful time to talk and share. Whether fast-paced or slow and deliberate, walks with another can provide learning, friendship, intimacy, and a renewed spirit.

In many ways, a walk embodies the pilgrimage or journey through life. Some walk in an aimless direction, even describing their movement as “walking in circles”. When Jesus walked on earth, however, those who walked with him proceeded in a purposeful direction. In fact, in the first days of Christianity the walk was called “the Way”. Walks have a way of changing people. In the Christian faith (as in other faiths), the time-honored pilgrimage or procession shapes the mind and heart of the walker. Just as over the centuries walkers have been transformed, so today Jesus transforms those who walk with him along “the Way”.

Today’s Gospel records one such famous walk. The Risen Christ comes upon two disciples as they walked from Jerusalem to Emmaus. After listening to the woes of these followers, Jesus interprets the Scriptures as they walk together. As he explains along the way and then breaks bread with them, their eyes are opened to this life-changing encounter with him. Only after he vanishes from their sight can they say, “Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us!”

We are people of “the Way”. While we pray and when we meet strangers, we walk with Jesus – and he transforms our lives.
