It is with great joy that I announce to the congregation that one of our young men, Robert (Bob) Hutz, has been accepted and will be entering St. Charles Borromeo Seminary in September.

Robert is not new to the practice of serving God's people. Some of his recent activities include volunteering in a soup kitchen and he also serves as a mentor to young boys in our parish as a Boy Scout leader. As part of his discernment process, he has been accompanying the priests and seminarians on Communion calls and has this year become involved in our RCIA Program and attended the Easter Vigil to support our Catechumens.

Robert's entry into the Seminary is a great honor and source of pride for his parents and family, but also for our parish family and I ask for your prayers for Robert that he will have the strength and endurance to follow God's plan in answering the call to the Priesthood. May God bless you, Robert.

Annual Mission Co-op Appeal – Rev. Luis Carlos DeLeon will be speaking at all masses the weekend of August 4 / 5, 2018 describing the work of and requesting support for his society, the Missionary Fraternity of Mary of Guatemala. He has been invited to our parish by the mission office of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

Begun in 1981 as a youth ministry with seven young men, the Fraternity was subsequently established as a Society for Apostolic Life in 1990. Since then it has grown to over 150 ordained priests serving 64 missions in 31 dioceses in 11 countries. Currently there are approximately 100 seminarians in various stages of formation at the seminary in Guatemala.

Fraternity mission sites are established where there are no clergy available to fulfill pastoral needs, in difficult economic areas, and among the poor and marginalized. Fraternity priests journey to develop their spiritual lives and strengthen their Catholic faith to help them positively impact the community or village in which they live.

Blessed Among Us

Paula Gonzalez – Sister of Charity, Environmentalist (1932-2016) - Paula Gonzalez, who was born in Albuquerque, entered the Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati in 1954. After receiving a doctorate in biology, she went onto teach for many years at the College of Mount St. Joseph. A turning point in her life came when she saw the first photographs of Earth from outer space. It was the beginning of a new vocation in environmental ministry.

In confronting the perils facing the earth, Gonzalez realized it was not enough just to protest. It was necessary to demonstrate life-sustaining alternatives and to develop a new Earth-conscious spirituality. With the help of volunteers, using recycled materials, she converted an old chicken barn into a fully solar-powered and solar-heated house – “Casa del Sol” – which became her home. In 1995 she established EarthConnection, an environmental learning center on the grounds of her order’s motherhouse.

At the same time, Sr. Paula tried to articulate a spirituality appropriate to our place in the cosmos. She spoke of God as “The Great Living one” – whose presence could be seen in all creation. Reflecting on the Our Father, she wrote, “When we proclaim God’s name as ‘hallowed’ (holy), do we recognize the echo of God’s name in the wonder all around us? Might God be calling us to be co-creators of a transformed earth, a heaven of peace and harmony?”

She died on July 31, 2016.

“Thy will be done’ has to be looked at in a new way: namely, that we maintain ecological community. In the end ecological kinship is the only valid way in which to pay homage to our Creator.”

-Sr. Paula Gonzalez

SPIRITUAL REFLECTIONS

Inexhaustible Nourishment

And look! You come to me; you want to be with me; and you invite me to your banquet! You wish to give me heavenly food and the bread of angels to eat – nothing else, indeed, than your very self, the living bread who came down from heaven and who gives life to the world!

See from what place such love comes, how excellent the honor that radiates from it! What great thanksgiving and praises are due to you for this gift of yourself!...It is a thing of wonder and a thing worthy of our faith that goes far beyond human understanding that you, O Lord, my God - -true God and true man – are fully present under the appearance of bread and wine and that you are eaten by those who receive you, without being consumed!

Lord of all things, who have need of nothing, you have chosen to live among us through this Sacrament. Keep my heart and my body unblemished so that with a happy and pure conscience I may often celebrate and receive your mysteries for my eternal salvation – your mysteries, which you have given to us and made holy for your honor, celebrated forever in memory of you. Rejoice, my soul, and give thanks to God for leaving to you in his valley of tears so noble a gift, so unique a comfort. As often as we celebrate this mystery anew and receive the Body of Christ, so often do we perform the work of our redemption, and so often do we share in all those things that Christ has earned. Christ’s love never fades, and his immense graciousness is never exhausted.

Thomas a Kempis (1380-1471), a monk and priest, is remembered for his book ‘The Imitation of Christ’, one of the most influential handbooks of spiritual devotion ever written.
