This Week with the Saints

Monday, October 9 – St. Denis, Bishop and Companions – Denis was the bishop of Paris, having come to the city from Italy to convert the people to Christianity. He and his companions were martyred by beheading during the Decian persecution.

St. John Leonardi, Priest – Though his first training was as a pharmacist, in his life as a priest, John Leonardi was dedicated to the religious education of young people and to spreading of faith through the foreign missions. His work with the latter laid the foundation for the Society of the Propagation of the Faith, an organization that continues to support the Catholic missions around the world.

Saturday, October 14 – St. Callistus I, Pope and Martyr – It is believed that Callistus was a slave in his youth, eventually becoming a deacon and, ultimately, pope. As pope, he worked ardently to defend the Church’s teaching. He was martyred in the early third century.

SPONSOR OF THE WEEK
OLC would like to thank
GRANT FAMILY PHARMACY

Pilgrim Virgin Statue of Our Lady of Fatima is available to visit homes of all parishioners. If you would like to hose this statue in your home for one week, call Jeannie at 215-612-1671. Many blessings and great peace have been known to come to the homes of those who host Our Lady’s statue!

SPIRITUAL REFLECTIONS

Still Our Story

“When Jesus told stories, he really didn’t mean for us to take them seriously.” This from an adult Christian in an interfaith dialogue session. Seriously.

Imagine a scene immediately following today’s parable. An oblivious listener unwittingly tells Jesus, “Whew! So glad that was just a story, and you really didn’t mean it.” And then comes....

“Let me tell you about the story I just told you. It is a true story of what the world looks like when you turn from the love of God entrusted to you. So you don’t beat or murder or kill? You haven’t stoned anyone in your entire life? This is still your story. It often starts with just a smidgen of selfishness, a measure of misunderstanding, a casual disregard for the least among you. All those less-than-noble human inclinations that, left unchecked, produce fruit more fitting for the compost pile than the Kingdom of God.”

Okay, so composting was a different thing back then. But the point of the parable endures. If it all sounds so harsh, notice that Jesus tells only the beginning of the story. The roughest rhetoric about wretched people being put to a wretched death – don’t blame that on Jesus. His listeners draw their own logical conclusions: If you disrespect the Son of God and neglect the Kingdom of love he entrusts to you, it’s seriously serious.

Maybe this parable matters not a whit, but I wouldn’t bet on it.
