St. Charles Borromeo Seminary Appeal will be the weekend of November 12/13, 2022. “The Archdiocese of Philadelphia is flourishing thanks to the countless priests, deacons, and laypeople who were at Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary for Service to God’s people. Our aspiring servant leaders would not be able to fulfill God’s call to service if it weren’t for faithful supporters like you. Your kindness energizes our seminarians and students in their ongoing studies and discernment.” Most Reverend Nelson J. Perez, Archbishop of Philadelphia

VETERAN’S DAY MASS – A special mass will be celebrated on Sunday, November 13th at the 10:00AM Mass. We are asking all veterans to attend this mass. We will be meeting in the church vestibule at 9:50AM. Feel free to wear any hat, American Legion or VFW attire that indicates your branch of service. We will be walking down the aisle together toward the altar where pews will be set aside for us. Anyone who would like to bring up the gifts or do a reading, please inform Stephen Michielli or Mike Ciampoli.

CARING FOR FRIENDS – Do you like to cook? If you cook meals at home, you can make an extra one, freeze it, and drop it off at Our Lady of Calvary’s freezer in the garage of the rectory. The side bottom door of the garage is open between 7:00AM – 7:00PM. The trays and lids are provided on the shelf next to the freezer. Any questions, call Kim Heuser at 215-495-4198 or email delcarlino1@aol.com

BLESSED AMONG US

St. Elizabeth of the Trinity – Carmelite Mystic (1880-1906) Though as a child she wished for nothing more than to become a Carmelite nun, Elizabeth Catez acceded to her mother’s condition – that she await her twenty-first birthday. On that day she entered the convent in Dijon and became Sr. Elizabeth of the Trinity. The next two years passed happily. “I find Him everywhere,” she wrote, “while doing the wash as well as while praying.” But then, soon after taking her vows, she was diagnosed with an incurable disease of the adrenal glands. Elizabeth welcomed her condition as an opportunity to “conform herself to the Crucified in love.”

In increasing agony, she lived on for three years. Under obedience she recorded her spiritual thoughts in notebooks, which were published after her death. Her teaching was reflected in a letter she wrote to a friend: “We carry our heaven within ourselves, because he who satisfies the saints with the light of vision gives himself to us in faith and in mystery. It’s the same thing. I feel I have found heaven on earth, because heaven is God and God is in my soul. The day I understood this a light went on inside me, and I want to whisper this secret to all whose I love, so that they too, in whatever circumstances, will cling increasingly to God.”

Elizabeth died on November 9, 1906. Her last words were, “I am going to Light, to Love, to Life.” She was canonized by Pope Francis in 2016.

“O Consuming Fire, Spirit of Love, overshadow me so that the Word may be, as it were incarnate again in my soul. May I be for him a new humanity in which he can renew all his mystery.”
-St. Elizabeth of the Trinity

SPIRITUAL REFLECTIONS

A Priceless Answer

Over the past year, I’ve been a guest on several different podcasts. Every time, the interviewers assured me I could just relax and enjoy myself, that they wouldn’t be lobbing any “gotcha” questions my way. All they wanted, they said, was to find out what I thought.

Clearly, none of these guys were Sadducees. They group of scribes who posed their $64 question to Jesus – which of the seven brothers would this woman have to marry once everyone had died? – did not remotely care which brother it was. Theirs was not an honest question, arising from a genuine desire to know what Jesus thought. The Sadducees were famous for not believing in the resurrection of the dead, so why would they be concerned about a dead woman and her many dead husbands? Obviously, this was a “gotcha” question, intended to make Jesus look like a fool. The implication was: your theory about eternal life is WAY too complicated. Look at all the troublesome family ties that would have to be factored in. Come on!

But Jesus was not one to be trapped by crafty legalists. You may be very smart, he said, but what happens after death is something beyond your ability to comprehend. Our life in God is a beautiful, mysterious thing; trying to explain it in strictly human terms is impossible. So back off, you who would try to trick me. Before the world began, I was.

Gotcha
